

BULLYING: What To Do

MISD Response to Bullying Reports

When a teacher, counselor, or district staff receives a written or oral report of bullying, they must immediately notify the campus principal or designee. The campus administrator receives the bullying claim and determines if bullying has occurred. Concurrently, the administrator puts measures in place to prevent bullying during the investigation.

